

Interesting facts about the USA

<https://www.essayhave.com/research-paper-writing-service.html>

Interesting facts about the United States will help you look at this country from another angle. The United States of America are superpower that affects the whole world.

There are many natural and architectural monuments on the territory of this state, the existence of which you may never know.

Next, we will consider the most interesting facts about the United States.

27 interesting facts about the US

The United States takes 1st place in the list of GDP countries (gross inner product). Regulations for 2016, this indicator exceeded $ 18.5 billion. At the same time, the US debt today reached $ 20 trillion.

It is curious that in the US there is no official state language. Most of the inhabitants communicate on the so-called American language, which is an English option. In some regions of the southern States, Spanish is additionally used, in Louisiana - French, and Hawaiian is considered an official language in Hawaii.

American laws have their own strength on the desert palmir atoll.